Forthcoming events

New Member's Evening - Friday 8th July, 8pm in St Michael's Hall.

If you or anyone you know is interested in joining St.Michael's then come along to our informal opening evening next Friday. We will provide refreshments and an opportunity to meet many members of the group and find out more about the productions planned for this year and next.

Autumn Production - We will be performing Alan Ayckbourn's "Role Play" in October. Fran Fox our director for this production will be holding open auditions in St Michael's Hall on Monday 11th July from 8pm.

Role Play, tells the story of an hilarious evening in the flat of a young couple about to introduce their parents to each other and announce their engagement plans. Things start to go wrong very quickly, when they are joined by two unwelcome and unusual guests.
